

Please leave Indiana's telephone privacy act alone. It is working wonderfully. For the first time in a long time we can have a peaceful evening without a bunch of unwanted and many times rude interuptions by solicitors. I feel like if I am paying for this service I should have some say in it, afterall what about my right to privacy.

Thank you.